

Napowan Adventure Base Council Contingent Registration Form July 5 - July 11, 2009

The Northwest Suburban Council Contingent Troop is a chance for scouts to attend camp who could not attend with their home unit, or a chance to attend a second week at a reduced rate. Individual scouts are placed in a troop of other scouts from all over the Northwest Suburban Council. It is a chance for them to experience camp in a different troop atmosphere while making many new friends.

Multiple members from the same troop are welcome to join the contingent troop but register and participate as individual members. If numbers reach a certain level, a second troop will be formed. At that point, participants will be randomly split into the two troops.

All leadership for the troop is provided by the Northwest Suburban Council. To provide the maximum continuity, troop leadership is present for the entire week.

The cost of attending with the contingent troop is the regular camp fee of $260.00. However a discounted rate of $175 is available for any Scout who has attended summer camp at Napowan Adventure Base during the 2009 season.

The following is required for Registration:

- 1) A properly completed BSA medical form signed by a Doctor.
- 2) Contingent Troop Registration Form.
- 3) Proper fees Paid.

Registration Due by June 5, 2009
